About The Friends' School

The Friends' School is a coeducational, Early Learning to Year 12 day and boarding school, located in the heart of Hobart, Tasmania. Friends' thrives on an intrinsic spirit of warmth and friendliness, and its strong community atmosphere reflects the intentions of the founding Quakers whose original vision for the School in 1887 was an education for spiritual and intellectual growth.

Each students' individual needs and interests are nurtured at Friends', where we have a wide range of opportunities for students to explore and develop individual passions and challenge themselves academically. The Friends' School has a strong commitment to service, to equality of relationships and to fostering independent and creative thinking.
